Sir

I have the honor to State that the Swami of Ramachandrapura in Nagar Taluq had obtained in 1860 permission without any term from the then Magistrate of this District for going armed and for possessing certain arms as described in the permit annexed in the Vernacular record. But under the terms laid down in Section 3 of the Indian Arms Act, the Swami should have obtained a renewed permission within one year from the date on which the Act came to force.

The

the Inamis continued to enjoy the privilege of exemption on the authority of the permission granted in 1860, which is void under ~~[illegible]~~ the amended Indian Arms Act of 1878.

2 This Mutt, which is situated in Nagar Taluk, is stated to be an important institution for Havika Brahmins and has been enjoying Inam lands. As such it is a necessity to the Mutt to possess some arms to guard its valuables while in tour and also at Ramachandrapura. Given a consideration of this necessity and importance, I presume that the Mutt was granted an exemption in 1860.

3. I therefore recommend that the Inamis of this institution may be exempted from the provision of the Mysore Arms Rules with respect to the 17 arms now stated to be in the Mutt.
